YUMACHA

Our food is based around Asia's favourite dishes and street food. Our menu is largely designed for sharing; we advise that you order as a group and share rather than individually. WE do not serve our food as a starter or mains. ALL our dishes including the noodles and rice dishes are designed to be shared and are cooked to order and will arrive when they are ready not when all your dishes are cooked. IF you are ordering individually please let us know and we will try and cook them the same time. Though this is not always possible during busy periods.
We recommend that you chose 3 or 4 dishes each.
Tables of 10 or more people must order a Set Menu - Normal Menu not available
